Message from the Principal

"Each morning, we are born again. What matters the most is whether we have given our best today' Regardless of what happened yesterday focus on today" Often our thoughts lead us to either past or towards future and away from now. Living in past can be depressing and thinking about future often bring anxiety. Both could also be a form of escaping reality or being stuck. A practice like Mindfulness can help us be in the present and work on what matters now. So always ensure to make your day meaningful and productive with utmost sincerity and truthfulness.

The Amalgamation

"Everybody is talented because everybody who is human has something to express."

The Amalgamation event held in the Deens PU campus on the 24th of July was truly an event filled with spectacular performances by the talented students of PUC1. While we had a pool full of talented artists ranging from singers to dancers to artists and many more, there were definitely some performances that stood out and left a lasting impression on all the students.

'Dancing is the poetry of the foot' and Vinusha Nayak from PU1 Commerce couldn't have put life into this any better. Her elegant moves and graceful expressions were surely a delight to our eyes.

Malavika Unni of PU1 Science had us in awe with her melodic voice and outstanding guitar performance. Her performance made us feel that words make you think a thought, music makes you feel a feeling, but a song makes you feel a thought.

'Dance is the hidden language of the soul.' This was best showcased by Aditya Mule of PU1 Science who put forth an energetic and power packed dance performance with wonderful expressions and swift movements that swept us off our feet and certainly made us want to jump on stage and dance with him.

Affan Shariff from PU1 Science absolutely blew our minds with his swift movements and impeccable technique while showing us various card tricks. It was a very engaging performance and by the end of it, the audience could not help but believe that the existence of tricks does not imply the absence of magic.

'Sometimes it only takes one good song to bring back thousands of good, old memories.' The finale performance by Dhruv Nair, Poornima Thiyagarajan, Nidhi Murthy and Eikalavya Vats from PU1 Science sure did bring back some good old memories. The harmonious ensemble put together a beautiful and melodic mashup of a few Hindi songs and their voices were definitely a treat to our ears.

Endings are not bad things, they just mean that something else is about to begin. The amalgamation event was overall a great success thanks to the extremely talented students of Deens PUC1, the faculty of the Deens PU College and the wonderful support from the PUC2 students. Wishing you all a joyful and eventful 2 years ahead!

In the session held on June 28, 2022, Grade 9, 10, PUC1 and PUC2 were introduced to SEWA (Social Empowerment through Work education and Action) by our honorable Chief Guest Yogesh sir, who is also part of our esteemed Deens institution. He is a Physical Education teacher at the Deens Whitefield Campus. Being socially well experienced, he was a part of the Corona warriors , deceased task force and he worked for the NDA. Throughout his life he has helped people and worked for the welfare of the society. He also volunteers as a traffic warden everyday and he has been the first respondent to various bomb blasts and floods across Karnataka.

A few SEWA activities which you can undertake are-

1. Teaching the underprivileged kids
2. Creating awareness about traffic rules
3. Planting trees to save the environment

4. Fundraising to provide financial support to those in need.
Yogesh sir stands as an inspiration for all of us to volunteer for the betterment of society. The session ended with a quick round of questions.

We thank Yogesh sir for spending his valuable time with us and sharing wonderful insights on SEWA.

Report by Priyanka, PU2
Commerce.

On the morning of 20th July 2022, the PU students of our esteemed institution gathered for a formal assembly. All the students and teachers congregated punctually along with the pleasant weather was a significant start to the day.

The assembly started with the school prayer which we recited righteously . Two of the PU2 students spoke about India's highest civilian awards- The Bharat Ratna, India's highest civilian award conferred to people in recognition of their exceptional service in any field without distinction of race, occupation, position or sex and The Padma awards- Padma Bhushan, Padma Vibhushan and Padma Shri. The Padma awards seeks to recognize works of distinction and is given for distinguished and exceptional achievements/service in all fields of activities or discipline such as art, social work science and engineering, technology etc. The above mentioned knowledge about the awards that was presented splendidly was impeccable as it offered awareness which we as Indians must possess.

The assembly ended with a positive thought presented by a PU1 student that implied "Virtually nothing is impossible if you just put your mind to it and maintain a positive attitude." The assembly was thus a meticulous and insightful event at the Deens PU College.

Student's 'Corner

A place to display your talents for friends and teachers to see

Happiness surging through my body,
As I look at the stars above,
The night sky twinkling,
Reminding of the state I'm in

All worries washed away,
In terms with our scars.
Don't need to hide them no more,
For they made us who we are

I don't need to put up a facade,
Let them love me as I am
The mirrors no longer show my reflection
Just a normal girl, with lovely imperfections
